Virtual Trivia Night at Glendale Public Library

GLENDALE, AZ - Join the library quizmasters for a fast-paced evening of virtual trivia in celebration of National Library Week. Compete for Amazon gift cards by answering a challenging range of questions on pop culture, sports, science, history and more!

“This pub-style trivia event is a perfect way for new users to discover library programs or for our old friends to re-connect with us.” says Liz Garcia, Administrative Librarian. She continues, “Trivia is fun, low-stress and something that librarians excel at. What makes this program even more exciting is that the first, second and third place finishers will win $50, $25 and $10 Amazon gift cards as prizes.”

Library Virtual Trivia will be held on Thursday, April 8, starting at 6:30 PM. Participants will need to register and will be sent a link for the Zoom program the night of the event. Players will also need a mobile device to go to www.kahoot.it or to download the Kahoot app.

Merideth Jenson-Benjamin, Administrative Librarian says that Kahoot is a perfect tool for virtual trivia events. “It’s easy and free to use; and lets people participate as individuals or in teams.” To register for Library Trivia, visit <http://bit.ly/gplaztrivia>
