Hybrid Teen Library Council. We're assembling a SUPER Hybrid Teen Library Council! ALL Glendale teens are invited to discuss possible programming ideas, social media ideas, and more! Each TLC attendee will earn two hours of volunteer time. Please register to attend online via Zoom OR attend in person at any of our four library locations! Thursday, August 12, 4-5 PM.

Code with Daisy. Daisy, a software engineer, will guide you through some fun projects showing how to build a better world through coding. Registration is required for this virtual workshop. Friday, August 13, 5-6 PM.

Teen Book Boxes! Need something new to read? Looking for something to do? Request a Teen Book Box at http://bit.ly/gplteenbookbox and receive a box filled with cool stuff to keep, plus library books to borrow, chosen just for you by your personal teen librarian! Boxes will include three library books, a craft/activity, and other goodies. Quantities are limited!
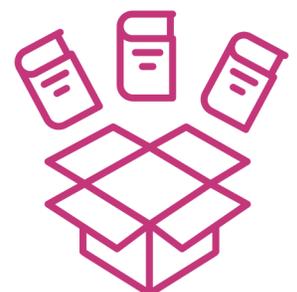

Volunteer Opportunities

In-Person Teen Volunteering

There are opportunities for teens ages 14+ to volunteer at all library locations. Volunteers must be willing to commit to a regular schedule and at least 2-4 hours per month of volunteering.
Fill out your application online: www.glendaleazlibrary.com/events_services/volunteering#teenvolunteering

Teen volunteers primarily work in the Youth Department, assisting with program preparation and participation, organizing and shelving materials, computer sign-ups and other tasks.

If you are looking for a short-term volunteer experience (1-8 hours), please contact Cassandra Jarles, Volunteer Coordinator, at 623-930-3544 or cjarles@glendaleaz.com to discuss your options. Short-term volunteer assignments are not always available. It is best to contact Cassandra as soon as possible. Short-term volunteer assignments may be available for teens ages 12-13.

Virtual Volunteer Opportunities

Looking for a way to volunteer? Need volunteer hours for school? Check out these virtual volunteer opportunities!

Virtual Book Reviews

Teens may earn volunteer hours by submitting media review videos/images/slides for Instagram or TikTok. Teens can earn 1 hour per approved submission, which must be appropriate for teens and for representing the library. Email Kearsten, klabrozzi@glendaleaz.com, for more info. A photo/video release form signed by a parent/guardian may be required.

Virtual Teen-Led Crafts

Do you feel creative AND want to earn volunteer hours? We assemble weekly or bi-weekly Take and Make crafts/activities for teens. If you'd like to help us create a Take-and-Make, you'll need to submit a supplies list (enough to create 100 kits with a budget of $50-$75 total), step-by-step instructions (for an included instructions sheet), and a how-to/walk-through instruction video (a link will be provided on the instruction sheet). Teens can earn 4 hours per project, dependent on approval of submitted video, supplies, etc. Email Erin at egarred@glendaleaz.com for more information. A photo/video release form signed by a parent/guardian will be required.

All events at the Glendale Public Library are public, and participants may be photographed by the media and/or City staff for future print and/or online publication.

All events are for ages 12-18 only, unless otherwise stated.

Please arrive on time for registered programs. If you are more than 10 minutes late, your space may be given to another.

Glendale Public Library is a division of the City of Glendale Community Services Department: 623-930-3590
